Lou Malnati's famous deep dish pizza is coming to Oak Lawn at 5261 West 95th Street next to Eva's Bridal and across the street from the library.

Considered the oldest family name in Chicago pizza, Lou Malnati's is as rich in history as its pizza is in flavor. Lou got his start in the 1940's working in Chicago's first deep dish pizzeria. Lou Malnati took his pizza expertise to Lincolnwood, a northern suburb of Chicago, where he and his wife Jean opened the first Lou Malnati's Pizzeria on March 17, 1971.

The family owned and operated company, now with 34 locations, has continued to grow thanks to its dedicated staff and loyal customers. Malnati's success comes from their commitment to quality. Every Lou Malnati's pizza is handmade from scratch using the finest and freshest ingredients. Every year the Malnati team hand selects California vine-ripened tomatoes for the perfect sweet and tangy taste. The exclusive sausage blend is seasoned to their exact specifications. The fresh mozzarella cheese comes from the same small dairy that has supplied Lou Malnati's for over 40 years. And the family's secret recipe for flaky, buttery crust has been passed down from generation to generation. You'll know with every bite that each pizza was made with care and special attention.

Lou Malnati's is expected to open this fall. As we get closer to the opening date, more details will be provided. We are excited about this new business coming to Oak Lawn and remain thankful to all those who have provided excellent services and products to our community for many years.

CHICAGO SOUTHLAND CVB LAUNCHES NEW HOST IT HERE CAMPAIGN: CSCVB LOOKING FOR LOCAL RESIDENT TO BE HOST IT HEROES

The Chicago Southland Convention & Visitors Bureau is launching an aggressive local marketing campaign focused on encouraging local residents to host their next state, regional, or national meeting, event or sports tournament here in the Chicago Southland. Influence by local members could help turn the key to bring these events here. This campaign is called Host It Here.

The Chicago Southland CVB is actively seeking out local residents who hold influence with state, regional, and national organizations that can help bring their next meeting or event to the region.

Members of an organization can include participating on a board of directors, committees, or just being affiliated by membership. Also, members can be just participants of a sporting tournament or conference wanting to Host It Here. Every dollar spent during these types of events has an enormous economic impact on Chicago Southland businesses. Over $80 million is spent every day by visitors coming to Illinois.

It's easy to have a large positive impact on the region's economy, and it all starts with a phone call to the Chicago Southland CVB at 708-895-8200. The CSCVB will work for you and your organization to make sure your next event is hosted here and is a success.

"This new campaign will get the attention of Chicago Southland residents who are tired of spending time and money traveling out of town for meetings, events, and sporting tournaments," said Jim Garrett, CDME, President/CEO of the Chicago Southland CVB. "It's incredibly simple to be a Host It Here Hero, just give us a call and let us take care of the rest."

Here are a few examples of Host It Here Heroes:

- As the President of the Illinois State Soccer Association, Branko Ilic helped bring many soccer events to the Chicago Southland including the Regional & National Championship Cup matches for the United States Adult Soccer Association.
- Director John Wilson of the Lan-Oak Park District helped bring the Mid-America Trails & Greenways Conference to the region. The 2013 Conference will be held at the newly remodeled Holiday Inn Chicago Matteson Conference Center with an estimated economic impact of over $97,000.
- Through Dave Heinemann's passion for Chevy Corvettes and his leadership in the National Council of Corvette Clubs, he helped bring their Annual Convention to the Tinley Park Convention Center. The convention, which attracted 400 corvette enthusiasts, generated an estimated economic impact of at least $500,000.
- You have heard of the U.S. Open, but what about the U.S. Open of Mini Golf? Director Kevin King of the Chicago Ridge Park District brought the 2012 U.S. Open Professional Miniature Golf Tournament with mini-golf players from all over the world to the Chicago Southland.

Being a Host It Here Hero for the Chicago Southland is easy. Provide us information about your event and we'll take care of the rest. Give the CSCVB a call today at 708-895-8200 or email sales@visitchicagosouthland.com.
